

PRESS RELEASE

NEW YEAR'S EVE MASKED BALL AT HALSWELL

31ST DECEMBER 2009
9.00PM TO 3.00AM

Party the old year out and the new year in – in style. After the phenomenal success of last year's event we are gearing up to make New Year's Eve 2009 a party to truly remember. Dress code is black and white - how easy is that? - and bottles of bubbly will be awarded for the best costume or colour ensemble.

Complimentary buffet, disco, fun casinos, two bars and a pyrotechnics display at the witching hour to end all firework displays. Masks can be purchased on the door but to avoid disappointment go to 'forthcoming events page' on www.halswellevents.co.uk and click on some easy links.

Tickets are £45.00 per head. Overnight accommodation is available should you require it. For details and ticket sales please contact the Halswell Box Office on 0845 208 1066 during normal office hours. Early booking is advised as numbers are strictly limited.
